

HAZWOPER PART I: TRAINING AND INFORMATION

T 289

Name: _____

Date: _____

Test Questions:

1. Which of the following contains rules and regulations for employees who are exposed or potentially exposed to hazardous substances?
 - A. The Bill of Rights
 - B. The U.S. Constitution
 - C. The OSHA Hazwoper Standard
 - D. All of the above

2. Employees covered by the OSHA Hazwoper Standard include:
 - A. Workers involved in clean-up operations at uncontrolled hazardous waste sites
 - B. Workers at EPA-licensed waste treatment, storage, and disposal facilities
 - C. Workers responding to emergencies involving release of hazardous substances
 - D. All of the above

3. Specific procedures to help control safety and health hazards during hazardous waste operations are contained in:
 - A. The employer's Safety and Health Plan
 - B. The employer's Annual Report
 - C. The OSHA Hazwoper Standard
 - D. The OSHA Hazard Communication Standard

4. The OSHA Hazwoper Standard requires medical surveillance at least annually and at the end of employment for:
 - A. All employees engaged in hazardous waste operations
 - B. All employees exposed to any particular hazardous substance at or above established exposure levels
 - C. Employees who wear approved respirators for 30 days or more on site
 - D. Both B and C

5. True or False: Employees must receive training before they are allowed to engage in hazardous waste operations or emergency response that could expose them to safety and health hazards.
 True False

Signature