

LIMITED SPACES: ATTICS, BASEMENTS AND CRAWL SPACES

Name: _____

T315

Date: _____

Test Questions:

1. Entering limited spaces such as attics, basements, and crawl spaces can be dangerous because:
 - A. Lighting may be limited
 - B. Movement may be limited
 - C. There is risk of exposure to hazards including electrical hazards, insulation, protruding nails, rotting wood, inadequate ventilation, and creatures such as rats & snakes
 - D. All of the above
2. When you're inside a limited space, it is most important to:
 - A. Plan your route to the work area, and take stock of any hazards that may be encountered
 - B. Leap, then look
 - C. Move as quickly as possible so you can get the job done sooner
 - D. Call your employer to tell him or her that you've arrived at the work area
3. To help protect yourself from possible electrical hazards in limited spaces, it is best to:
 - A. Turn electricity off
 - B. Be cautious of all wiring
 - C. Avoid entering a limited space when it's raining
 - D. Wear rubber-soled shoes
4. To help avoid heat stress while working in limited spaces, it is best to:
 - A. Wear as little clothing as possible
 - B. Wear a wetsuit
 - C. Limit the time spent in hot environments, and drink plenty of liquids
 - D. All of the above
5. In general, you can help ensure your safety when working in limited spaces by:
 - A. Being aware of hazards before entering
 - B. Wearing camouflage gear
 - C. Wearing a hardhat and safety shoes
 - D. Finishing your work as quickly as possible

Signature