

Name: _____

Test Questions:

Date: _____

1. Confined spaces are areas with limited access or egress where it's difficult to protect entrants from serious hazards such as toxic, explosive, or asphyxiating atmospheres
 True
 False

2. Many of the people who die in confined space incidents are rescuers who are not adequately trained or equipped.
 True
 False

3. Which of the following conditions may present a hazardous atmosphere?
A) Flammable gas, vapor or mist in excess of ten percent of it's lower flammable limit
B) Combustible dust that obscures vision at a distance of five feet or less
C) Oxygen content is below 19.5 percent or over 23.5 percent
D) Where a substance is above it's permissible exposure limit dose
E) All of the above

4. Before entering a space with a potentially hazardous atmosphere, which of the following precautions should you take?
A) Test the internal atmosphere with a calibrated, direct reading instrument
B) Check your small change
C) Check your hair
D) Look in the mirror

5. Which of the following are some responsibilities of the attendant?
A) Be sure that conditions inside the "permit space" are acceptable during the entire time it will be occupied
B) Remain outside the permit space for the duration of entry operations
C) The attendant and entrants must be in constant communication
D) All of the above

Signature