Professional Development Webinars

In the ongoing effort to provide our supervisory employees with professional development opportunities, we encourage you to attend these upcoming webinars or web-based seminars.

The 2009 sessions have concluded. Please check back for the publication of the 2010 session dates. Thank you.

Organization Development & Training Division

Our mission is to constantly build organizational effectiveness by providing the material and conceptual resources needed to improve performance and enhance the quality of work life.

We are committed to the continuous growth and development of our people.
