

Investment In Excellence (IIE) Schedule of Classes

This thirty-two hour "Investment In Excellence" training teaches people how to manage change, set and achieve goals, lead more effectively, and think in ways that create success.

This course is available upon request.

Organization Development & Training Division

Our mission is to constantly build organizational effectiveness by providing the material and conceptual resources needed to improve performance and enhance the quality of work life.
We are committed to the continuous growth and development of our people.