FRESNO – Councilmember Esmeralda Soria, Santa Claus and Fresno's Meathead Movers have teamed up to help Santa deliver toys to children at Heaton Elementary School this Wednesday. Councilmember Soria partnered with several local businesses to collect 750 unwrapped toys for children ages 4 – 11.

“This holiday season I am proud to partner with local District 1 businesses for my 5th holiday toy drive,” said Councilmember Soria. “This effort will bring holiday cheer to hundreds of deserving children at Heaton Elementary. Thank you to all the sponsors and community members who donated this year. Happy Holidays!”

All toys collected will be distributed to children attending Heaton Elementary during a special holiday event on Wednesday, December 13th at 9:00am. Councilmember Soria will arrive followed by Fresno's Meathead Movers at Heaton Elementary (1533 San Pablo Ave., Fresno 93728) at 8:45am for the event and toy distribution.
