Councilwoman Soria To Reveal Fresno High Beautification Project At The 2nd Annual Echo & Weldon Block Party

FRESNO –Fresno City Councilwoman Esmeralda Soria will reveal her latest project in the Fresno High Neighborhood with help from Caglia Environmental, MidValley Disposal and the Fresno High Neighborhood Association.

This Monday May 29th, 2017 the Fresno High Neighborhood will see two new trash cans, three bike racks, and two pet waste stations along the Echo and Weldon corridor.

Thank you to Ampersand Ice Cream shop and Kuppa Joy who have both agreed to be our long term sponsors and will be maintaining the trash cans in front of their businesses.

We would also like to thank the Fresno High School Art students for their creative mosaic that covers both trash cans.

2nd Annual Echo & Weldon Block Party
Memorial Day May 29th, 2017
11am-3pm
1940 N. Echo Ave.
Project reveal is scheduled to begin at 12:30PM.
