FRESNO – Councilmember Esmeralda Soria is hosting a City Hall reception for Chateauroux Mayor Gil Averous and Deputy Mayor Jean-Yves Hugon for their first ever Fresno visit. The reception is a celebration of the Sister City agreement between the City of Fresno and Chateauroux, France. Councilmember Soria will be joined by over 100 local elected officials and community leaders to welcome the Chateauroux delegation.

The resolution to form the Sister Cities agreement was passed by the Fresno City Council unanimously on December 17, 2015. The agreement is an effort between Fresno and Chateauroux to strengthen friendly cooperation in the areas of trade, tourism, culture, and education. Chateauroux is a community of 45,000 with an adjacent military air base in the Loire River Valley region of Central France.
