Fresno City Councilmember Esmeralda Soria Appointed to serve on League of California Cities' Transportation, Communication and Public Works Policy Committee

Location, CA – Fresno City Councilmember Esmeralda Soria has been appointed to the Transportation, Communication and Public Works Policy Committee. This committee has the lead responsibility for recommending to the League board of directors policy positions on state issues involving transportation funding, construction, public works, telecommunications, and other related areas. The appointment was announced by League President Jan Arbuckle, council member, Grass Valley.

As a committee member, Councilmember Soria will play a key role in shaping the League's policy positions on issues facing California cities and advocating for cities at the State Capitol.

"I am excited to continue advocating on behalf of the residents of the City of Fresno on issues of high importance such as transportation, public works, and communications. As a member of this committee I will work hard on behalf of my community to ensure we receive our fair share of resources," said Councilmember Soria.

"I am proud to have Councilmember Esmeralda Soria join the League's Transportation, Communication and Public Works Policy Committee on behalf of her residents," said League President Jan Arbuckle, council member, Grass Valley. "We will work together as a team, comprised of local front line leaders from across the state, to ensure that the local perspective guides the outcome of state policy decisions."

The leadership of the 2019 committee consists of Chair Lindsay Horvath, Council Member, West Hollywood, and Vice Chair Newell Arnerich, Mayor, Danville.
