FRESNO, CA – Councilmember Esmeralda Soria was elected President of the League of California Cities Latino Caucus (LCCLC) today at their annual business meeting. The Latino Caucus is a non-profit official affiliate of the League of California Cities, which was established in 1990 and is a statewide membership association made up of California elected officials. The LCCLC serves as a leader to improve the quality of life, advocate on behalf of the Latino community and provide, promote and develop leadership.

“I want to thank my colleagues for trusting me to lead the League of California Cities Latino Caucus during this critical time in the State of California. I want to thank our outgoing President Roberto Uranga (Councilmember of Long Beach City) who served for two years and ensured that we continued our impactful work during the pandemic. I am proud of the work the Latino Caucus has accomplished in its 30 years.

As we continue to fight this pandemic, which has disproportionately impacted Latino working families, we must remember that the next legislative session will be critical to ensure there is equity in the economic recovery of Latinos in our communities. I look forward to working with my colleagues across this state to ensure that Latino families are at the table in shaping the policy that will impact our future. We must continue to work together as a collective voice to demand what we deserve," stated Councilmember Esmeralda Soria.
