

Neighborhood Guide to Reporting Code Violations

COMMON CODE VIOLATIONS

VACANT PROPERTIES

Can attract illegal and mischievous activity which should be reported.

ANIMALS

Farm animals such as chickens, roosters, goats, sheep, cows, and horses are not permitted in residential areas.

RUBBISH & JUNK

This includes garbage, scrap metal, lumber, concrete, asphalt, tin cans, tires and piles of earth. Also included are unsecured vacant buildings and failure to maintain yard landscaping such that it can create a hazard, obstruct traffic, or create blight in the neighborhood.

INOPERABLE VEHICLES

Cannot be parked on the street or stored on private property unless fully enclosed within a legal structure, such as a garage. Car covers are not acceptable.

TARP AND POLE STRUCTURES

Are illegal under the zoning codes. Even though they are popular, laws governing their placement are enforced. The use of tarp and pole structures can carry fines up to $800. If you have one, please take it down.

ALLEYS

Are required to be maintained by the property owner. They can also attract illegal and mischievous activity, which should be reported.

VACANT LOTS

If you own a vacant lot in the city, make sure it is kept free of weeds, trash, and debris all year long.

VEHICLE PARKING

Vehicles parked on private residential property must be parked on driveways, in a garage, or carport. Vehicles CANNOT be parked on dirt, lawn, or landscaped areas. All vehicles must be operable.

WEEDS

The accumulation of tall, dry grass on vacant lots is prohibited. Property owners are required to ensure that all weeds that constitute a fire hazard are cleared from their property or that the land is turned with a disc.
