SUBJECT: BUDGET HEARING REQUEST

During the Police Department Budget Hearing on June 15, 2020, Council President Miguel Arias requested the Police Department provide a status of Gang Injunctions. The following is a history and current status of Gang Injunctions currently being utilized by the Fresno Police Department:

The most recent gang in a gang injunction was Calwa Bulldogs (CVL). The injunction was put in place approximately five (5) years ago. Because of a series of court cases in California, gang injunctions are difficult to enforce. MAGEC has rarely used them over the past several years. The Fresno Police Department is not currently utilizing the Gang Injunctions as an enforcement tool.

The last time the CVL injunction was enforced was approximately one year ago by Fresno Sheriff's Office / Rural MAGEC detectives. On that case, detectives made contact with gang members as they related to the injunction; however, there was no prosecution for violating the injunction.
