

Rain Barrel Rebate Program

REBATE SUMMARY

A rebate of up to $55 is available for the purchase and installation of up to two (2) qualifying rain barrels. There is a limit of one (1) rebate per qualified account for the lifetime of the account.

A rain barrel is a rainwater-harvesting system that sits underneath a downspout and collects water that would ordinarily flow from a rooftop into the public storm water system. Rain barrel systems help to conserve water by reducing the demand on the potable water system for irrigation purposes.

According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), outdoor irrigation accounts for nearly 40 percent of water used by households during the summer. Rain barrels provide homeowners with a free water source to water plants, wash cars or utilize for other non-potable purposes, helping to reduce water bills.

The rainwater collected by rain barrels is superior to tap water for irrigation purposes due to its purity and softness. Rainwater is slightly acidic, and is free from chlorine, salts, mineral, disinfectant byproducts and other contaminants, making it a preferred water source for plants and flowers.

The amount of water harvested from a rooftop depends on several variables, including the dimensions of the rooftop, the collection capacity, and the amount and timing of the rain received. A typical 1,000 square foot roof surface can yield approximately 625 gallons of water collected for every 1 inch of rain that falls. Fresno receives an average of 11 inches of rain annually.
